These Rules & Regulations have been formulated and promulgated aiming to regulate establishment, offering and management of investment funds, other funds and associated activities in Bhutan. (However, the management of foreign capital/funds will be set out in a separate regulation) These Rules & Regulations are issued in pursuant to Sections 202 and 362(e) of the Financial Services Act of Bhutan 2011 and must be read in conjunction with the additional requirements stipulated under the Financial Services Act of Bhutan 2011.

Short title and commencement

1. These Rules & Regulations shall be cited as the Fund Management Company Rules & Regulations 2019 and shall supersede the Investment Advisor and Management Company Regulations (IAMCR) 2014 from the date of the enforcement of the revised rules and regulations.
2. These rules & regulations shall come into force with effect from 1st July, 2019.

Interpretation & Amendments

3. If any issue arises in the interpretation of the provisions of these Rules & Regulations, the matter shall be referred to the Authority, and the decision of the Authority thereon shall be final and binding.

Guiding Principles

4. A fund management company's business shall be guided by the following principles;
 - i. Security – protecting investors by exercising due diligence in the investment process and by making informed decisions;
 - ii. Profitability – maximizing returns from its investments;
 - iii. Liquidity – using risk management concepts such as diversification and asset-liability management; and
 - iv. Development- promoting the growth of the financial market through the development of CSIs, infrastructure, venture capital and other similar ventures.

PART I
